Address of Dr. Dame.

Dama expressed the hellef that the men of the present command were made of the same staff, were the sons of the same stres who had made the reputation of the Howitzers in war.

Colonel J. C. Dempsey, United States Army, attached to the staff of the Governor, Irriseffy but very pleasantly accumulated the compliment, and after endorsing what the Mayor had said as to the value of education in warfare, he told an incident of his campaigning in Texas.

Major McCarthy then, in a humorous presentation, introduced Colonel William Kenn, of Louisa, an old Howitzer, who made one of the most elequent, touching and appropriate addresses ever made
